QUALIFICATIONS FOR FULL MEMBERSHIP

Any person, firm or corporation engaged in the electrical industry as an independent sales representative of manufacturers shall be eligible for membership, provided that such individual, firm or corporation:

- a. Has been engaged as an independent representative for at least two years prior to application, and at least five years in the electrical industry.
- b. Represents at least two electrical manufacturers, and maintains an office and personnel separate and apart from, and independent of, any such manufacturers.
- c. Has no interests adverse to, or in conflict with, the Association, its general membership or its purposes.
- d. Agrees to subscribe to and maintain standards of practice established by the Association.
- e. Pays the dues established by the Association for all of its members, and initiation fee established for new members.
- f. Is sponsored by at least two members of the Association in the individual's trading area, and the individual's written application is submitted with a check for the initiation fee to the National Headquarters. One copy will be retained by Headquarters, one copy forwarded to the Regional Vice President, and one copy forwarded to the Local Chapter President. The Regional Vice President and Local Chapter shall then review said application and report in a timely manner to the National Headquarters.

A period of ninety (90) days shall be considered the maximum period that an application shall be under consideration. In the event that this period (running from the date upon which the application is received at National Headquarters) expires without any action having been initiated by the Local Chapter or Regional Vice President, headquarters shall assume that the applicant satisfactorily meets all the membership requirements set forth herein, and shall process the application accordingly, and without any further notice being required.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

Associate Members are those who, although they do not qualify for full or honorary membership under the Constitution and By-Laws of this Association, shall be entitled to and inured of all rights and benefits, duties and obligations, of the aforesaid full membership, except that:

- a. Associate members shall not have been engaged as an independent sales representative for at least two years prior to application, but must have at least five years in the electrical industry.
- b. Associate members shall not hold any office whatever, either elected or appointed in the Association.
- c. Associate members shall have no voting rights whatsoever in Association matters.
- d. Associate members upon meeting the requirements of being engaged as independent sales representatives for 2 years shall immediately be granted full membership in the Association without further action.
