

Stimulus Bill and FFCRA Information

Dear Members,

Here are a few documents that have been shared with me that I believe are a benefit to all.

New Stimulus Bill to help Small Businesses:

The below link will provide some details about the new stimulus bill being finalized. The key is that these loans are forgivable if they are used for salary continuation and certain monthly overhead expenses for up to 2 months.

Secondly, attached is a PDF flow chart designed to illustrate the provisions for the Families First Coronavirus Response (FFA).

In addition, attached is updated information on the Stimulus Bill for Small Businesses. The attached PDF gives a good summary of what is in the current Stimulus bill for small businesses (under 500 employees). Once the loans are available, anticipation is that there will be a huge rush to obtain. Please contact your banks now to discuss.
