- The TTS Platform can be called the electrical manufacturer's reps ERP system!
- No other software solution does all 5 functions – Quotations, Sales Analysis, CRM, Total Order Entry and Marketing. Integrated pipeline management means more efficient and effective sales strategies for you!

The Five Modules of the TTS Platform

Quotations

Very simple and dynamic input. "ALL" manufacturers quotes in one location. Plethora of reports including Win/Loss. Allow inside and outside to work together more productively.

Sales Analysis

Manage all manufacturers sales and commissions. Document management allowing for "real time" sales.

CRM

Tool for outside sales activity. Organize by individual, company or manufacturer. Set alerts. Ability to integrate with manufacturers CRM systems.

Total Order Entry

Single order entry portal. Inventory control and order management tool for all manufacturers.

Marketing

Automated mass marketing promotions to easily upsell or cross-sell. Links to Youtube channels.

REPFABRIC

- A CRM and Sales Data Management Platform Built for Manufacturers' Sales Reps
- As reps, we understand the complexities of repping multiple manufacturers. That's why we created Repfabric, the CRM, sales reporting, and commission tracking tool uniquely tailored to the needs of manufacturer sales reps.

Email Integration

Become a master multitasker by managing your customer data while in your inbox – no need to jump to another program.

Mobile App

Access your customer and sales information whenever and wherever you need it with our mobile app.

Manufacturer Reports

Stay ahead of the never-ending stream of manufacturer report requests with real-time reporting that is always up-to-date.

Sales & Commissions

Be able to quickly answer critical questions like, "How are my top accounts doing?" with an intuitive sales dashboard.

REPFILES

- RepFiles enables manufacturers to populate and manage the content on thousands of outside salespeople's devices.
- Salespeople no longer need to learn different systems, manage multiple logins or move in and out of various apps when they need to access content in front of a customer.
- Under a single account within a single app, RepFiles gives salespeople a one-stop shop

TriNet Zenefits

What can a PEO do for you?

Save time and money

Hiring a PEO frees you up to focus on your business and can help deliver a rapid return on investment—on average, more than 27% improvement in ROI.*

* National Association of Professional Employer Organizations, September 2019. Individual business results may vary, including results of TriNet clients.

Helps your business stay compliant

Keeping up with employment rules and regulations takes time away from your business. A good PEO provides the expertise you need to help you comply with federal, state and local regulations governing payroll, benefits, terminations and hiring.

Gain access to big-company benefits

Access to leading employee benefit plans is no longer reserved for large companies. The right PEO for your business should offer access to quality health care coverage in the regions where you operate.

HR solutions tailored to your needs

Your business is unique, just like your industry. Whether you're a nonprofit or a financial firm, you have the support of industry-specific HR professionals who cater to your HR needs.

IPA / MRERF

The CPMR designee has demonstrated organizational management skills by completing the demanding, three-year certification program while still maintaining day-to-day business. CPMR graduates subscribe to the stringent requirements of their common Code of Ethics, thus safeguarding the integrity of their firm and the factories they represent.

Learn how to become your customer's business partner and strengthen your key account relationships to increase sales. In today's highly competitive and ever-changing marketplace, buyers expect more from you – more information, more expertise and more professionalism. They demand value not only in your products and services, but in your relationship with them as well.

Many manufacturers struggle to engage with their independent sales reps. From not meeting sales expectations to shifting priorities to reporting, it's not uncommon for sales leaders to become frustrated with the independent sales rep model. The MBP program gives you the tools and processes you need to create strategic partnerships with your reps, so you can increase your sales.
