NEMRA University CEUs

Golden, CO — The Institute for Professional Advancement (IPA), sister organization to the Manufacturers' Representatives Educational Research Foundation (MRERF) is pleased to offer CEU credits to individuals completing training programs offered by NEMRA University.

NEMRA CPMR and CPSC Alumni Impact Updated

NEMRA University courses previously offered as well as new offerings are eligible to receive CEU credit toward maintaining the Certified Professional Manufacturers' Representative (CPMR) and/or the Certified Professional Sales Consultant (CPSC) designations.

Courses completed in NEMRA University with a certificate indicating success, may be submitted as supporting documentation for the CEU requirements of CPMR and/or CPSC. More details pertaining to designation renewals may be found at <https://ipa-certifications.org/ipa-certification-renewals/>.

This continued partnership provides flexibility to designation holders to earn the CEUs necessary to maintain designations at renewal time. See table and notes below:

Designation	CEU Requirement
CPMR	10 CEUs
CPSC	10 CEUs
DUAL (both CPMR & CPSC)	15 CEUs
CEU Equivalencies
1 hour = 1.00	45 min = 0.75
30 min = 0.50	15 min = 0.25
Notes: 1. CPMR CEUs are limited to half being product-specific training. Remainder of credits should be topics covering leadership, management and other business-related, self-improvement topics. 2. Legacy CSP designation holders that have not renewed will convert to the new CPSC designation when they renew in the new IPA.Certemy platform. Questions – email certify@mrerf.org

Continuing education as well as the annual renewal fee are required to be considered current in maintaining the CPMR and/or CPSC certifications. The Manufacturers' Representatives Educational Research Foundation (MRERF) is the creative energy behind educational programs offered by the Institute for Professional Advancement (IPA).
