The future of our industry isn't written—it's shaped by us. Every challenge we tackle, every innovation we embrace, and every partnership we strengthen defines our path. NEMRA members don't just participate—we lead.

Leadership isn't a title; it's a responsibility. It means stepping up, taking ownership, and driving progress. As our industry evolves, we must lead with vision, embrace innovation, and set the course for what's next.

True leadership is in our actions—mentoring, strengthening relationships, and solving challenges together. At NEMRA, leadership is at our core, from our Board to every member.

But leadership alone isn't enough. AI, data analytics, and smarter distribution channels are already reshaping our work. Those who adapt gain a competitive edge—those who resist risk being left behind.

By embracing change—leveraging technology, improving efficiency, and enhancing communication—we don't just adapt, we shape the future. And together, we achieve more than we ever could alone.

Innovation alone doesn't drive progress—collaboration does. Our industry thrives on partnerships, trust, and shared goals. Strong relationships—with manufacturers, contractors, and distributors—are the backbone of success.

NEMRA's MOU with NEMA, NAED, and NECA reinforces our commitment to a unified approach, highlighting the critical role reps play as the industry's connective tissue. Together, we achieve more.

Shaping the future requires transformation. Change isn't a threat—it's an opportunity. Purposeful evolution ensures long-term success, and NEMRA is committed to advancing our members.

Through specialized divisions like NEMRA Lighting, advanced training, and digital collaboration tools, we are preparing for the future—not someday, but today.

We're not waiting—we're building. NEMRA is launching new resources, strengthening advocacy, and expanding specialized divisions. Growth is intentional. Leadership is a choice. Success comes from the actions we take now.

So, I challenge each of you—seize the opportunities ahead. Engage with NEMRA, leverage our programs, and invest in yourself, your teams, and the partnerships that drive our industry forward. When we grow together, we lead together.

As we move into this next year, NEMRA University is going to continue to be a part of our strategy. It is our goal to be the local experts in our market for product and generate demand for the manufacturers that they expect and also we expect upon ourselves.

Corey Collins

Agents West, Inc.

NEMRA25 was our second conference and our first as a full member. It was a tremendous opportunity to meet with over 2,000 attendees. We had good conversations with reps, but also with manufacturers who have been in the industry for a long time.

The biggest thing for us is we have some transitions in leadership roles right now and the way Dr. Jeff presented the content it's going to allow us to take back to the organization and further develop our success in talent.

The most important part of having these professional development programs is being able to sit with your peers, co-NEMRA members and bounce ideas and share challenges you may be facing in the industry that they also may be facing.
